GAVE UP THE PHILIPPINES.

Rumored That the Surrender Made at Manila on Saturday Included All the Philippines.

Admiral Dewey and General Merritt, if the Report Is True, Have Effectually Settled the Philippine Question.

Scripture-McRae Service.

Washington, Aug. 18.—It is semi-officially stated that the Spanish surrender at Manila August 13 included the whole of the Philippine group.
Admiral Dewey and General Merritt have, therefore, arrogated that provision of the protocol which referred to the settlement of the Philippine question and which it has been feared would give the commissioners the greatest trouble. If the report be true the Spaniards, by the terms of the surrender at Manila, have given up the very bone of contention over which they hoped to raise the most trouble and have immeasurably simplified the ultimate settlement of the terms of peace.

Eighteen Millions of Dollars, Mostly English Capital, Will Do the Business.

Scripture-McRae Service.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—The news is reliably obtained here that the cotton thread concerns of the United States are on the eve of completing a combination with a total capitalization of $18,000,000 and which will include practically all the important cotton thread plants and over four fifths of the output of America. A decrease in price will probably be the result of the combination. A large proportion of capital will be held by an English syndicate or its representatives.

San Francisco, Aug. 18.—Seven volunteers have returned from Manila on the transport Australia on account of sickness. They tell a pitiful story of hardships during the journey from San Francisco to the orient. They claim they were treated like serfs and slaves. That they had only two meals a day consisting of hard tack, coffee and hash. They declare the coffee sometimes contained cigar butts, and the hash was beyond eating.

CUBANS TO GO TO WORK.

diers as the Spanish Army Is Not Fighting.

Scripture-McRae Service.

Washington, Aug. 18.—It has been decided that the Cuban army is to be regularly mustered out of service as there is no longer a Spanish army in Cuba. The Spanish troops now there are considered as merely doing garrison duty. The Cubans will be advised to return to their farms and go to work.

A RUSSIAN OPINION.

ippine Question Presents

Scripture-McRae Service.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 18.—A semi-official journal says the Philippine settlement presents great difficulties.

ed should be gradual and under the barism.

WHY HE LEFT.

An Explanation of the Reason the Governor of the Philippines Ran Away.

Was Afraid His Surrender Would Be Taken to Include All the Islands.

Scripture-McRae Service.

London, Aug. 18.—The Times' Madrid correspondent says the reason of Governor General Augusti's departure from Manila was that because Augusti was governor of all the Philippines it was feared that a capitulation signed by him would be taken to include the entire territory under his jurisdiction. Therefore he decided to transfer the duty of final surrender to the governor of Visayas.
General Augusti's departure was probably another precaution taken in the same line, because had he been on the island, it would be assumed that he could not resign his position.

outbreak from the big cities.

GERMANY INVESTIGATING

that Governor Augusti escaped from Manila on a German cruiser, but no confirmation of the report has thus expects that the action of the German admiral will be found to mean nothing unfriendly to the United States.

PHILIPPINE PROCLAMATION

Will Soon Be Issued by General Merritt, Providing a Plan of Government for the City and Territory.

Property Will Be Protected and All Municipal Laws, Courts and Institutions Will Remain Unchanged.

Scripture-McRae Service.

London, Aug. 18.—A Manila dispatch, dated the 14th inst., says General Merritt will soon issue a proclamation embodying a scheme of government for the Philippines.
Its principal provisions will be protection to all personal property; the municipal laws, courts and all local institutions to remain unchanged until further notice and subject to the supervision of the American general; to open trade for all foreign nations and the protection of public property.

75,000

Volunteers, and Perhaps More,
Will Soon Be Mustered Out.

Will Be Especially Those Included in the Second Call—Regiments Are Not Yet Known.

Scripture-McRae Service.

Washington, Aug. 18.—An authoritative statement was made by General Corbin today that it is the intention of the war department to muster out between 75,000 and 100,000 volunteers as soon as possible. Those mustered out will be particularly those who enlisted under the second call. Just what regiments will be included in the muster is not yet known for several days.

ANOTHER SHAKE-UP.

Several More Deputy United States Marshals to Be Let Out—Deputy La Rue Will Probably Remain.

Marshal James Will Cut Off the Heads of Seven of His Deputies in the Near Future—Unknown Who They Will Be.

Scripture-McRae Service.

U. S. Marshal James has received orders from headquarters at Washington to reduce his force of field deputies from 22 to 15. He has made the order public, but has as yet made no announcement as to who the unfortunate deputies who are to get the ax will be.

Deputy La Rue, of the city, does not know whether he is on the list or not. It is very probable, however, that he is not. He is in a district that is greatly in need of a deputy, and besides he has won the admiration and commendation of his superiors for his vigilance and attention to duty, and they likely will not feel like letting him go.

It is said that three of the seven to go are the deputies at Russellville, Owensboro and Elizabethtown. This would leave but two deputies south of Louisville, the one in Paducah and the one in Bowling Green.

In case the force is reduced, and there seems to be no doubt but that it will be, the result will be very gratifying to those left, as it will give them much more work, and corresponding increase in compensation.
Marshal Blackburn had about 33 deputies, and this number was reduced to 25 only a short time ago.
The further reduction will make the deputyships well worth having.

TROUBLESOME AGUINALDO.

He May Yet Conflict With the American Troops—The Insurgent Leader Is Angry.

Merritt Has 14,000 Soldiers, and They Are Thought to Be Sufficient to Hold Aguinaldo in Check.

Scripture-McRae Service.

Washington, Aug. 18.—It is reported that Aguinaldo may attempt to occupy Manila because he was not allowed some part in the surrender of the city. It is giving the administration some concern. It is known that Aguinaldo has 30,000 armed Filipinos while the United States has only a little over 14,000 troops there.
But it is believed Dewey and Merritt can take care of them all. The administration is very anxious to avoid another conflict, such as would take place should Aguinaldo have to be conquered.

"Crip" Wilkins Brings Suit

Claims They Failed to Deliver a Message Announcing the Death of His Wife.

Scripture-McRae Service.

B. F. Wilkins, better known as "Crip" yesterday afternoon filed suit in the circuit court against the Western Union Telegraph company for $1,500 damages.
He alleges that about the 24th of July, his wife, who was at Charleston, Mo., died, and that her father, Thomas H. Schofield, telegraphed him the fact and the time of the funeral, and that he was responsible for the delay in getting the message delivered, he avers, it was kept at the office here, and he was notified by mail that it was there for him. When he went after it, it was 24 hours after it should have been delivered, and he was prevented, on account of the delay, from attending the funeral at Charleston.
He prays judgment in the sum of $1,500.

Mr. Clarence Coker, a well-known rear door of the mill, which fronts on and was badly injured.

He fell eight or ten feet, and in addition to his nose being broken, his face was painfully lacerated. He was picked up and Dr. Redlick was called and dressed his injuries.
This afternoon he was reported as resting easy at his home on North

POLICE COURT PROCEEDINGS.

A Merchant Was Charged With Having Violated the Law Relative to Advertising.

The Prosecuting Attorney Takes Sides With the Defendant and Says He Ought Not to Be Fined.

The proprietors of the Hub Dry Goods company were this morning in the police court to answer a summons charging them with violating the ordinance relative to the distribution of advertising matter.

There is an ordinance which says that people engaged in the business of bill posting shall pay an annual license of $40. Distributing advertising matter as a business comes under the same head.

Attorney Oscar Kahn represented the defendant, and the court stated in advance that he had decided the construction of the ordinance before, and intimated that there was no use in arguing it.

The attorney took the position, however, that whereas people who distribute their own advertising matter are not necessarily in the business of bill posting, and the defendants had only distributed their own dog-gers, they were not guilty of any violation of the law. They had a right to advertise their own business.

After Mr. Kahn had finished, Prosecuting Attorney Wheeler Campbell stated that he did not deem it within his province to see the ends of justice defeated, and said he coincided with the other attorney and thought the defendant had not violated any law, and should not be fined. He said the ordinance was passed for the purpose of raising revenue for the city. It required all persons in the business of posting bills or distributing advertising matter to pay a license of $40 a year. In the business, in the opinion of the attorney, meant a man who derived in whole or in part, professionally or otherwise, his living from the business.

He said he was not going to argue out of his own advertising matter was not necessarily in the business, and if the position taken by the court were true, no man, no matter what his business, would have any right to even pass around his cards. The ordinance was not passed to protect the bill poster, but to keep any and every one from engaging in the business without paying license. The license is for the benefit of the city and not the bill poster. A man who has his own advertising matter distributed is not guilty under the law, it is claimed. The bill poster can advertise anybody and distribute anyone's bills and advertising, but the poor merchant has to pay the same price to distribute his own and no one's else.

Attorney Campbell's speech was very convincing, and he deserves great credit for espousing a cause, and advocating what he thought was right, despite the fact it may have been to his pecuniary disadvantage.

Judge Sanders, in rendering his decision, adhered to his construction of the law, but said he did not think there was any intention on the part of the defendants to violate the law, and he did not desire to muss them into a fine. He accordingly dismissed the case, but warned all others against falling into error, similar to the defendants.

Andrew Nipper is the name of a man who appeared to be very much on the "hog" when taken into custody by Officers McClane and Ullman last night. He said he came from Evansville, and in court this morning was advised to leave the city at once. He did.

BATTLE OF MANILA.

It Will Be Given Free Tomorrow Night at La Belle Park.

An Unfortunate But Unavoidable Postponement Last Night.

The "Battle of Manila" advertised to take place at La Belle park last night, did not come off, greatly to the disappointment of a large crowd.

The explanation given by one of the officers of the street car company is that Mr. Bour undertook the enterprise himself. He got along where money had to be advanced to him, and it was advanced in such amounts by the street car company, Manager Kostwick and the park keeper, that those who had advanced the money could never expect to recover it from the production. Some of those employed to manipulate the ships and other apparatus struck for money last night and Mr. Bour could not meet the demands. As he was at the head of it himself and already more money had been advanced to him by the persons above mentioned, the production was declared off.

The money was not returned, because that would have been impossible. There were a great many people in the park before any tickets were sold, and these, of course, could not have been put out, and some of them, at least, would have claimed the price of admission, whether they had paid it or not.

In addition to those already in the park, many, especially boys, stole their way in, and these would also have claimed ten cents, the result being there would have been a woeful shortage in the funds, and many would have gone away dissatisfied.

The show was thrown open to all who desired to attend, free of charge, and thirteen or more trailers were filled with those who availed themselves of the opportunity. The whole thing was very unfortunate, and is regretted by the street car company and the park management, as well as everybody else, but it could not be helped.

Tomorrow night the battle will be given free of charge to all, and the fire works display will be the finest ever seen in the city. The fire works arrived last night, and the freight was paid by the street car company, which vouches for the excellence of the production promised.

LOUISVILLE LEGION.

The First Kentucky Regiment Reaches Porto Rico in Great Shape.

Will Probably Do Garrison Duty and May Remain in the Island Several Months.

Washington, Aug. 18.—General Grant has reported his arrival and that of the First Kentucky Regiment.
Gen. Corbin says that all the First Kentucky has arrived safely, but no detailed report had as yet been received as to its condition.

Col. Castleman, he said, was now in command of his regiment, and that Grant would undoubtedly be put in command of a brigade of which the First Kentucky would be a part.

The First Kentucky has not been in any of the engagements, "Gen.
Grant reports, for the reason that the First Battalion has waited daily expecting the arrival of its Colonel.

Gen. Corbin said further that the First Kentucky would probably make the march to San Juan with Gen.
Miles. This is a special honor.

How long its services would be needed in Porto Rico Gen. Corbin could not say, but the present prospects are that it would remain on the island for several months at least.

Col. Castleman's boys will probably get part of the garrison work at San Juan, where they will get a taste of real army life.
